

Seattle 'grunge' band to play S.L.C. May 6

Pearl Jam, one-third of Seattle's "grunge rock" trinity, will perform May 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Utah State Fairpark's Horticulture Building in Salt Lake City.

The band springs from the same Seattle music scene that spawned such hot acts as Soundgarden and Nirvana. Pearl Jam has received critical and commercial success with their debut album, "Ten," and the hit single "Alive." Most recently, Pearl Jam appeared on "Saturday Night Live."

Tribe After Tribe will open the concert.

Tickets are $13 and are available at all SoundOff and Gray-whale CD outlets.
